CONCORDIA

University College of Alberta

The Mission of Concordia University College of Alberta

Founded in 1921, Concordia University College of Alberta is an accredited university college of Lutheran Church-Canada, offering liberal arts, science, and professional degree programs. Concordia's mission is to provide its students with a quality undergraduate and graduate education in a Christian context while sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ, enabling them to develop a sense of vocation and preparing them for leadership in the world.

The Values of Concordia

Concordia, in keeping with its mission, values

- the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the cornerstone of all its endeavours;
- the uniqueness, the potential, the integrity, and the well-being of every student that it serves;
- the heritage of its liberating and enriching Lutheran tradition;
- the promotion of the highest standards of teaching in a caring atmosphere;
- the importance of providing a nurturing undergraduate education in the chief areas of human learning and communication;
- the importance of providing graduate education that engages students in creative research and builds on, supports, and enlivens Concordia's research and undergraduate learning environment;
- the opportunity for all to grow spiritually and to become enriched in their understanding and appreciation of the Christian faith;
- the opportunity for students to establish and nurture meaningful and continuing friendships;
- the importance of encouraging all to use their knowledge and skills for the benefit of others in the wider community.

The Vision of Concordia

Concordia confidently looks to the future by committing itself to

- maintaining the highest standards of excellence in education, spiritual care, service, and professional conduct;
- fostering an awareness of the Christian faith in every area of teaching, learning, and research;
- working to ensure the safety, security, health, and wholeness of every member of the Concordia community;
- searching for ways to instill in students the joy of learning and an awareness that their education is a lifelong experience;
- providing a context for faculty and students to work together for the advancement of scholarship and research;
- preparing graduates who will serve the Church and society as dedicated leaders, responsible citizens, and competent professionals;
- strengthening ties with alumni, friends, and all who support Concordia.
