

3-Year Bachelor of Arts Religious Studies

Program Planner 2014-2015

While your degree planning is directed by the specific requirements for your chosen concentration and minor, it is also driven by your own personal interests; therefore, it is most effective when you are the master of your own academic planning.

Please be aware of all prerequisites, corequisites, and other registration regulations for all courses required within your degree. Program planning can be very effective to identify potential courses needed in addition to specific requirements. Refer to section 4.0 in the Concordia Calendar for more information regarding registration policies. You are responsible for registering in and completing the courses necessary to obtain your degree. The Concordia Calendar is the final authority regarding program requirements and academic regulations.

Core course requirements may be fulfilled through both concentration and minor requirements; however, the same course may not be counted toward both concentration and minor requirements. (Example: courses taken toward English minor simultaneously fulfill the English core).

Concentration Requirements

24-30 credits required to include:

- a) REL 101 and 102
- b) REL 499
- c) 15-21 credits of unspecified senior-level Religious Studies courses

Note: The Religious Studies concentration does not fully meet the course or language requirements for the Masters of Arts in Biblical and Christian Studies. Students will need to take additional courses prior to full admission to the Masters of Arts in Biblical and Christian Studies program. Please consult with the Department Chair of Philosophy and Religious Studies.
